

30/11/09 - Consultation to begin on 1 December

The consultation phase of the equal pay review will begin on 1 December following approval to proceed from the cabinet and the urgency committee of full council today.

The consultation is with unions about the proposed changes to terms and conditions and the pay structure. It will run for 90 days, until 2 March.

Managers have been asked to update all staff as soon as possible.

For more details speak to your manager.